

About Us

Phoenix, founded in 1971 in the city of Apeldoorn in the Netherlands, Phoenix is a vibrant symbol of Dutch folklore. Our motto, "Feel the Folklore", encapsulates our commitment to sharing the rich tapestry of Dutch culture and traditions. Phoenix has already represented the Dutch culture abroad through folklore performances in France, Hungary, Slovakia, and China. We aim to transport you to the heart of the Netherlands and its captivating traditions. Witness the lively spirit of the Dutch culture as we share stories through dance.

Inspirational Performances

Phoenix doesn't just dance; we ignite the stage with our passion for folklore. Our dynamic dancers are young, passionate, and committed to breathing new energy into Dutch folklore while preserving its authenticity. Our performances feature beautiful and unmistakable Dutch costumes that captivate the eye. We want the audience to feel the folklore by inviting them to dance a few steps of waltz and mazurka or experience an energetic polka during a parade. But Phoenix doesn't stop at Dutch dances; we can also offer an international repertoire that takes you on a journey to Ireland, Hungary, and Romania.

Contact Us

Are you ready to infuse your festival with Dutch folklore? Contact Phoenix at info@phoenixontour.nl

← Watch our videos

Feel the Folklore with Phoenix.

Last Festival Experience

Dansensemble Phoenix was invited in July 2024 to participate in the International Novohrad Folklore Festival in Slovakia and Hungary, a CIOFF-accredited festival. There we performed several times a day for a week, including shows and parades.

Dansensemble Phoenix shows a program of high artistic level and the audience responded very positively to it.

Viktória Poliačikova, International Novohrad Folklore Festival

Zeeuws

This choreography tells the story of the 1953 flood disaster that happened in the province Zeeland. The Zeelanders lost everything and showed resilience with which they rebuilt their country. The choreography is danced in traditional Zeeland costumes with beautiful white starched hoods from various Zeeland villages.

Watch video

De Vijf Dorpen

The Five Villages

This Dutch dance ensemble beautifully integrates costumes from five different regions — Marken, the Veluwe, Walcheren, Volendam, and Spakenburg. The diverse attires add rich cultural depth to the captivating performance, celebrating the Netherlands' heritage.

Watch video

Bij Maanlicht

Under the Moonlight

Beneath the tranquil moonlight, a Dutch boy courts his beloved with a flower. Their dance harmonizes the elegant flow of a waltz with the rhythms of a mazurka, as they sway in each other's arms. Their seamless embrace tells a timeless tale of love.

Watch video

Staphorst

Set in Dutch town of Staphorst, the dance exudes a lively charm. Embracing traditional Scottish steps, it captivates with light jumps and gentle lifts. The girls' attire, adorned with delicate stipwork-painted flowers, adds a graceful touch to this endearing performance.

Watch video

Echte Mannen

Real Men

A choreography that tells of fishermen who set foot ashore again after a long time at sea. Now it is time for a party! With their jovial dance moves on the festive music they celebrate as only real men can celebrate.

Watch video

Aan de Kade

At the Quay

While the men are at sea to fish, the women stay behind at the quay. This dance depicts these women's story. At first sad for their departure, then, as daily life resumes, hopeful for their return.

Tussen Hoop en Vrees

Between Hope and Fear

During the 1920s, a crisis plagued the Netherlands: imagine sky-high unemployment, unprecedented inflation and constant struggles. But the Dutch are resilient and puts their shoulders to the wheel to make life beautiful again. This story is told throughout four popular Dutch songs: "Malle Babbe" sings about a woman of loose morals, "The Bottle" sings about a man's hard life, "Old Amsterdam" is about the hard times in the big city and "Zonnetje" invites you to bring some joy.

Parades

Phoenix can walk parades while dancing and or singing. A mix of mazurka, bravades, waltz and traditional songs. Always on the beat with our orchestra, for a non-stop parade.

Watch video